TARGETING QUESTIONS

By: Verenice Meza, M.A. CCC-SLP

DISCLAIMER: PARENT CORNER IS INTENDED TO SUPPORT PARENTS THROUGH EARLY INTERVENTION THERAPY. IT DOES NOT SERVE TO REPLACE THERAPEUTIC SERVICES.

The following are the first three types of questions that your child should begin to understand and answer by ages one and two.

1. What Questions

Ex: "What do you want to play?"

Child Responds by:
looking, choosing,
grabbing, or
verbalizing

2. Where Questions

Ex: "Where is the ball?"

Child Responds by:
looking, reaching,
grabbing, bringing,
walking, or
verbalizing

3. Yes/No Questions

Ex: "Do you want a snack?"

Child Responds by: head nodding or
verbalizing
